

Sales Catalogue

In August 2010 the three Edition Peters companies finally united to form the new Edition Peters Group. This long-awaited development enables us to accelerate our publishing programme as we renew and expand our catalogue to cater for the evolving needs of today's musician. Fidelity to the composer's intentions is of course of paramount importance, hence the predominance of 'Urtext' (or perhaps more precisely termed 'critical') editions in our schedule. In this context, our recent editions of such composers as Chopin, Ravel, Fauré, Liszt and Haydn have set new standards for scholarship. At the same time we are also looking to build on our recent success in various fields of educational publishing. Diversity and a pluralistic approach have always been part of the Peters tradition, so you will also see a few surprises in our list of new publications!

Although this catalogue is designed to contain most of our general interest titles, it would be impractical to include the full fruits of over 200 years of publishing, so do please contact us if you need assistance in locating any particular title, either by phone on 020 7553 4000 (International + 44 20 7553 4000) or on our website: www.editionpeters.com.

Piano Solo

Bach, J. S.

Urtext Italian Concerto BWV 971 (Bartels) EP 11240 €6.80

Johann Sebastian Bach's "Concerto in the Italian Style" has been one of his most popular works since its publication in 1735. Two sprightly outer movements frame a cantilena of the utmost poignancy.

No original manuscript sources survive, but we do have Bach's personal copies of both versions of the original printed copies. This new edition is based on the second impression of the original printed copy, corrected by Bach himself.

Beethoven, Ludwig van

Urtext Sonata in D minor, Op.31 No.2 "Tempest" (Fischer) EP 4017 €5.80

"Go and read Shakespeare's Tempest." That was the advice Beethoven gave to his biographer, Anton Schindler, when asked about this work. Whether the nickname "Tempest" is justified or not, the outer movements are unquestionably propelled by a dark momentum.

Urtext Sonatas in G minor and G major, Op.49, Nos. 1 & 2 (Fischer) EP 4019/20 €5.80

These two "little" sonatas were composed much earlier than their high opus number might suggest - roughly at the same time as the Sonatas Op.7 and Op.10. Both are laid out in two movements, lightweight in their compositional fabric and relatively easy to play. As Beethoven composed both works for teaching purposes, they are an ideal introduction to his music for student pianists.

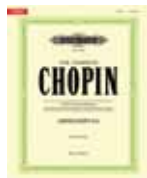

Cage, John

Opening Dance for Sue Laub EP 68139 €11.80

In the early 1940s John Cage was on the faculty of Mills College in Oakland, California. During that time he wrote several pieces to accompany the final performances of graduate dance students. The manuscripts for two of these works were recently rediscovered in the Mills College archives. This work, written in 1942 for Sue Laub, is one of them; Dance Music for Elfrid Ide (EP 68140) is the other.

Chopin, Frédéric

The Complete Chopin – A New Critical Edition

Series Editors: John Rink, Jim Samson, Jean-Jacques Eigeldinger, Editorial Consultant: Christophe Grabowski

Urtext Impromptus (Irving) EP 71906 €11.00

Pianists who have relished the revelations in the previous volumes of 'The Complete Chopin' will eagerly await this new edition of the Impromptus.

This award-winning series for Edition Peters continues to redefine Chopin scholarship for today's generation of pianists.

Fauré, Gabriel

Urtext Barcarolles (Howat) EP 71904 €22.80

This new edition of Fauré's Barcarolles, like that of the Nocturnes, draws on a very wide range of sources including piano rolls played by the composer and printed copies bearing his corrections. Along with other rare sources, these offer some variant textures in the First Barcarolle and throw important light on tempo and rhythmic treatment in (particularly) the first two Barcarolles. The Fifth Barcarolle shows a vital manuscript variant and some variant rhythmic notation that impinge strongly on the piece's tonal and rhythmic structure; in the Eighth Barcarolle a whole series of faulty or missing accidentals is corrected. A longstanding confusion of slurs and ties is resolved in the Tenth Barcarolle, along with a problem of continuity at one point. Some oft-debated textures in the Eleventh and Twelfth Barcarolles are clarified, along with the correction of an unusually large number of wrong notes in the Eleventh. The remaining pieces appear with many smaller but telling corrections, bringing a new clarity to this epoch-defining series of pieces.

Hamelin, Marc-André

Études for Piano EP 68235 in preparation

This new set of virtuosic studies by one of the great virtuoso pianists of our generation will be available in November 2010, alongside a companion CD recording from Hyperion. At the highest level of difficulty for pianists, these works are also designed to be fun, and the volume includes a study in the style of Rossini.

Liszt, Franz

Urtext Sonata in B minor (Dr Leslie Howard) EP 71900 €11.80

One of the great strengths of the Peters Edition of Liszt's piano music is that it was edited by Emil von Sauer – probably Liszt's most famous pupil. Dr Leslie Howard, one of the world's leading authorities on Liszt's piano music, has embarked upon a project to update our editions of these great works, utilising this unique link via Sauer to Liszt's musical lineage.

Piano, 4 Hands

Cada, Sibylle / Peter-Horas, Thomas

The Piano Duet Book, Volume 2

EP 11081b

€19.80

Featuring a wide range of musical styles, the diverse and appealing repertoire in this volume includes the music of Tansman, Bizet, Francaix, Mozart, Grieg, Debussy and Satie.

2 Pianos, 4 Hands

Brahms, Johannes

Urtext Concerto No.1 in D minor, Op.15 (Paul Badura-Skoda)

EP 9827a

€19.80

The nature of Brahms's feelings for, and relationship with, Clara Schumann has of course been a subject of perennial debate amongst music lovers. He described the second movement of this great concerto as a 'gentle portrait' of Clara. Meanwhile the monumental passions of the outer movements might be seen as more turbulent manifestations of his romantic ardour.

This new edition by Paul Badura-Skoda is based on a previous edition by Johannes Gerdes and has been revised on the basis of additional source material.

Chopin, Frédéric

The Complete Chopin – A New Critical Edition

Series Editors: John Rink, Jim Samson, Jean-Jacques Eigeldinger

Editorial Consultant: Christophe Grabowski

Urtext Piano Concerto No.2 in F minor, Op.21 (John Rink)

EP 71919

€16.80

The crowning glory of this wonderful work (written in fact before 'No.1') is perhaps the ravishing slow movement, in which Chopin enmeshes us in a quasi-improvisatory web of gossamer tenderness.

Schumann, Robert

Urtext Piano Concerto in A minor, Op.54 (Michael Musgrave)

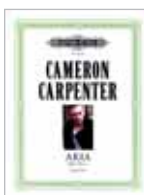

EP 71819

€17.80

Schumann wrote his only piano concerto for his wife Clara. Originally it was conceived as a single movement fantasy. Unlike many virtuoso concertos of its day, in which the pianist vies for ascendancy with the orchestra, the soloist is here fully integrated into the overall sonority.

Organ

Carpenter, Cameron

Aria, Op.1

EP 68310

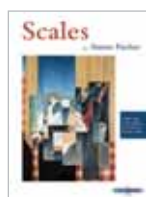

€7.80

Cameron Carpenter is a dazzling young organist who is acclaimed for both his tremendous technique and compelling showmanship. His newly released Telarc CD & DVD set features his full range: flawlessly performed standard organ repertory; his virtuosic transcriptions and reworkings of a variety of compositions by the masters of classical music; inventive improvisations, and imaginative original works.

Aria Op.1 is the first of Carpenter's original works for organ to be published. Carpenter's performance notes for this work say simply, "No registration, just dynamics and signs to observe or omit", encouraging other organists to improvise.

Volume 1

EP 68260a

€29.80

Volume 2

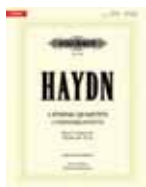

EP 68260b

€29.80

These two volumes, each including 12 new works are a response to the lack of intermediate-level marimba repertoire. The breadth of styles encompassed ensure that these volumes will be both accessible and instructive to students as well as inspirational to advanced players and professionals.

Chamber

Haydn, Joseph

Urtext String Quartets, Op.77 & Op.103 (Simon Rowland-Jones)
Score & Parts

EP 7620

€46.80

This outstanding re-evaluation of Haydn's string quartets continues with Haydn's last works in the genre.

Includes:

- fold-out pages in each individual part, eliminating the need for page turns within movements
- preface (in English, German and French) including detailed performance guidance

Voice

Beethoven, Ludwig van

Scottish and Irish Songs for 1 to 3 Voices, Piano, Violin and Cello

Vocal Score

EP 11251a

€13.80

Score/Piano Part (with separate String Parts)

EP 11251

€24.80

While working on his final piano sonatas Beethoven was commissioned to write a large number of folk song arrangements, most of them to British and Irish Melodies. A selection of these appears in this revised new edition. The 15 pieces are grouped into trios, duets, and solo songs for a variety of registers. The separate vocal score makes the pieces easier for singers to perform as all stanzas are placed directly beneath the lines of the music.

Puccini, Giacomo

Quando m'en vo, (Musetta's Waltz Song) from La Bohème

EP 72046

€7.80

A classic of the operatic repertoire and a favourite audition piece for young singers, this aria requires the stylish use of rubato, good lower range and clear upper register.

Un bel dì vedremo, (One Fine Day) from Madama Butterfly

EP 72045

€7.80

One of the most widely performed soprano arias, Butterfly's vision of her meeting with Pinkerton needs to be imaginatively and magically communicated, especially the feeling of distance at his gradual approach.

Education

Bates, Django

Interval Song (Sheet Music & CD Pack)
Every interval there is – all in one song

EP 71948

€19.80

The Education Pack contains:

- sheet music – Voice, Piano and Chords
- photocopyable lyric sheets
- a CD including performance, learning tracks and a backing track
- a guide to all the intervals contained in the song

Score

Mahler, Gustav

Symphony No.6, from the New Complete Critical Edition (Reinhold Kubik)

EP 11210

€98.00

This new edition incorporates the musicological findings of Jerry Bruck, sponsored by Gilbert Kaplan.

After extensive and painstaking research, this latest International Mahler Society Edition of the 6th Symphony concludes that the Andante should be placed before the Scherzo, thus reversing the order as presented in the 1963 Critical Edition. This decision, not easily taken, is nonetheless based on a cogent and convincing appraisal of Mahler's evolving relationship with the work. The emergence of the original set of parts from the first performance also enables the new edition to offer important amendments and corrections.

Choral

Bach, Johann Sebastian

St Mark Passion, BWV 247 (Alexander Ferdinand Grychtolik)

Complete reconstruction

Vocal Score

EP 11233

€16.80

Performance material available for hire

As no score has survived, there have already been several attempts to reconstruct this work. Using "parody" technique (i.e. borrowing and re-texting movements from other Bach works), the harpsichord player and composer Alexander Ferdinand Grychtolik has created a convincing complete reconstruction of this lost work. The premiere in 2007 allowed listeners to experience the St Mark Passion for the first time as a stylistically unified whole.

Mozart, Wolfgang A.

Urtext Missa brevis in C major, K220, "Sparrow Mass" (Klaus Burmeister)

Vocal Score

EP 11046

€5.80

Full Score

EP 11045

€16.80

This early Mass is a prime example of Mozart's uncanny ability to create sublimity from straightforward means, a fact noted by Klaus Burmeister in his preface when he draws attention to the 'folk-like' nature of much of the music. The rather bizarre nickname, appended subsequently in the 19th Century, derives from the chirping violin acciaccaturas in the Sanctus.

Our edition is based on all the extant sources, notably the original orchestral parts.

Schubert, Franz

Urtext Mass in E \flat Major, D950 (Rüdiger Bornhöft)

Vocal Score

EP 11269

€9.80

Full Score

EP 11268

€89.00

Schubert's Mass in E \flat Major was written in 1828 in the final months of his life. Like many of his late works, such as the C Major Symphony or Die Winterreise, Schubert never heard the Mass himself. The premiere, given by his brother Ferdinand in October 1829, met with great acclaim from the audience and further performances soon followed. One contemporary reviewer called Schubert's final Mass "surely one of his most profound and perfect creations". Our new Urtext edition is based on the autograph score.

Popular Styles

Crossing Borders a progressive introduction to popular styles by Remo Vinciguerra

Editorial Consultants: Anne Applin and Geoffrey Pratley

This progressive series is intended to enable the developing pianist to cross the often artificial 'border' between classical and popular music. Most of the pieces are in a popular idiom, but a classical spirit or framework can also be recognised in much of the music. The typically jazz concept of the 'blue' 3rd and 5th is introduced in the first volume, and the rhythmic, melodic and harmonic fingerprints of a wide range of popular styles are presented and developed throughout the volumes.

In accordance with the relative freedom characteristic of popular music, many interpretative decisions, especially dynamics, are left to the player. A creative approach is likewise encouraged for the choice of tempo and the use of pedalling.

The sequence of volumes corresponds in broad terms with standard grading systems.

NEW Opening Dance for Sue Laub.....€11.80 EP 68139

In the early 1940s John Cage was on the faculty of Mills College in Oakland, California. During that time he wrote several pieces to accompany the final performances of graduate dance students. The manuscripts for two of these works were recently rediscovered in the Mills College archives. This work written in 1942 for Sue Laub, is one of them; Dance Music for Elfrid Ide (EP 68140) is the other.

NEW The Complete Chopin – A New Critical Edition Urtext

Series Editors: John Rink, Jim Samson, Jean-Jacques Eigeldinger

Chopin was a perpetual reviser, sometimes almost obsessively so. He was quite capable of sending radically differing versions of the same piece to his various publishers.

The unique attribute of this new edition is that it follows scrupulously a 'single best source' for each piece, so that the piece is presented exactly as Chopin would have known it at a particular juncture.

Only Chopin's own fingering, as authenticated by the sources, is indicated. Sometimes unorthodox, these fingerings afford us a compelling insight into Chopin's own expressive intentions and performance style.

In the original preface to his Etudes, Debussy states his general belief that fingering suggestions in a printed edition are not helpful, and goes on to exclaim, "Cherchons nos doigtés!" ("Let us find our own fingering!"). In accordance with his wishes, our edition does not add fingerings or indeed anything else extraneous to the composer's original musical texts.

Urtext Edition (Köhler)

The Peters survey of Schumann's piano music, prepared by Hans Köhler, is the most comprehensive Urtext edition in existence, presenting not only all the established favourites but also some comparative rarities, many of which deserve to be more widely known.

The remarkable concluding essay within each volume also puts this edition in a class of its own. Packed with a wealth of fascinating historical information and analytical detail, these essays offer us an important new dimension in defining or enhancing interpretations of this perennially intriguing body of works.

Chopin, F.

- NEW The Complete Chopin – A New Critical Edition Urtext

Series Editors: John Rink, Jim Samson, Jean-Jacques Eigeldinger

Chopin was a perpetual reviser, sometimes almost obsessively so. He was quite capable of sending radically differing versions of the same piece to his various publishers.

The unique attribute of this new edition is that it follows scrupulously a 'single best source' for each piece, so that the piece is presented exactly as Chopin would have known it at a particular juncture.

Only Chopin's own fingering, as authenticated by the sources, is indicated. Sometimes unorthodox, these fingerings afford us a compelling insight into Chopin's own expressive intentions and performance style.

Urtext Piano Concertos

Edited by Christoph Wolff and Christian Zacharias

(with Mozart cadenzas unless otherwise indicated)

Pre-eminent musicologist Christoph Wolff and internationally acclaimed pianist Christian Zacharias join forces here to produce this landmark Urtext of Mozart's timeless masterpieces.

Some of the fingerings suggested by Zacharias are quite deliberately unconventional, usually for the purposes of facilitating idiomatic accentuation and articulation. His rationale is set out in the performance notes included in each volume, which also offer guidance on other important interpretative elements such as ornamentation, embellishment and authentic performance practice in general.

The generous page layout makes these prestigious editions particularly easy to read and study.

All of Mozart's original cadenzas are presented. The customary Beethoven cadenzas are included for No.20, and Christian Zacharias has written his own cadenzas for the rest of the concertos.

Fischer, S.

-  Scales.....in prep. EP 71908
Scales and scale studies for the violin

One of the central and original features of Scales by Simon Fischer is that scales are built up gradually, in order to develop good intonation. Taking this approach beyond that developed by Carl Flesch in The Art of Violin Playing, each scale is also preceded by studies built up using the tonic, third, fifth and seventh. An extensive system of "held-down finger lines" further helps intonation and left-hand stability.

In addition to presenting scales and scale studies in all keys, the book includes a wide range of related practice material, including:

- exercises for finger preparation
- exercises for smooth bowing
- rhythm, accent and bowing patterns
- a practice method to develop "fast" fingers
- the turning point at the top of the scale
- exercise for shifting

- Basics.....€39.80 EP 7440
300 exercises and practice routines to develop all aspects of violin technique
- Practice.....€49.80 EP 7578
250 step-by-step practice methods for the violin

An innovative new sight-reading course for string players

- Grade 1.....€11.00 EP 7831
- Grade 2.....€11.00 EP 7832
- Grade 3.....€11.00 EP 7833
- Grade 4.....€11.00 EP 7834
- Grade 5.....€11.00 EP 7835

Right@Sight differs radically from other sight-reading courses. Why?

Each book contains a CD of accompaniments designed to encourage students to sight-read rhythmically and musically, even between lessons

- duet parts enable teachers to play along with their students, encouraging confident and rhythmic playing
- guidance notes based on the mnemonic TRaK (Time signature, Rhythm & Key) which helps students develop a disciplined approach to sight-reading
- On Your Own sections present sight-reading examples in exam format (without guidance notes or accompaniments)
- a progressive graded structure takes the student "beyond the grade", bridging the gap to the next grade

Mozart wrote canons throughout his creative life. Unfortunately, few are performed today, yet they contain some wonderful music; most of those in this collection were written in the month after Mozart finished his last three symphonies. Playable by any combination and number of string instruments.

Cello part edited by Raphael Wallfisch.
Piano reduction edited by John York,
based on the composer's arrangement.
Preface by Professor David Brown

This is the first new edition of the Rococo Variations to be published outside of Russia that presents the work in Tchaikovsky's original version, and not following the unauthorised changes made by the original dedicatee, Wilhelm Fitzenhagen. Professional cellists are increasingly favouring this original version.

Reflecting the composer's original intentions, the edition includes:

- The variations restored to their correct order
- Tchaikovsky's finale reinstated
- Appendices containing the more bravura coda re-written by Fitzenhagen, and the composer's first draft of the fourth variation

30 Italian Songs and Arias

of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries

selected and edited by Roger Nichols

(Includes a CD of piano accompaniments) (It./Eng.)

Complete with English singing translations, word-by-word translations and pronunciation guide

Medium-high.....€16.00 EP 7743a
Medium-low.....€16.00 EP 7743b

Italian songs and arias of the 17th and 18th centuries have for many years been essential repertoire for anyone learning to sing. But this music is principally known in romantic adaptations which the original composers would barely recognize.

This new collection of 30 songs and arias (based on the 'standard 24', together with other pieces typical of the Italian style) recreates the clearer and cleaner – and easier to play – accompaniment style of the 17th and 18th centuries.

I am delighted to see Parisotti's ubiquitous anthology recast with such learned courtesy. Roger Nicholas has shed all outdated features, adding instead invaluable information and suggestions; this choice of pieces celebrates even better the genius of Italian baroque song, and I hope to see it used everywhere!

Choral Singing – The Easy Way to Learn

• Separate CD for each voice featuring the choral movements of the work

• Learn Your part in 2 stages:

1. The music is initially played with your own part louder than the other voices, which are performed quietly in the background
 2. Second time around your own part is omitted – it's now up to you to 'sing-along' with the rest of the chorus
- Orchestral parts are played on the piano

NEW Five Hundred Years to Auschwitz
 A Family Odyssey from the Inquisition to the Present
 Hardback Volume.....€32.00 D 3385+

This is an objective yet dramatic historical account of the journey of one dynasty – the author's Sephardic Jewish paternal family - through 500 years of European turmoil. It tells of how politics and turbulent times shaped a single family's passage from the Inquisition to the Holocaust and beyond and graphically illustrates the dark reality of history coming 'full circle'. It's a human story set within a historical context, a fascinating account of achievement, emigration, persecution, horror and ultimately, survival.

Composers' Notes

Financial triumphs and disasters of the great composers

presented by John Suchet, written by Tim Lihoreau

• Hardback book.....€16.00 EP 7894
 ISBN 1-84367-026-7

We've all heard sad tales of impoverished composers – Mozart's final resting place a pauper's grave, Beethoven arrested as a tramp, so shabby were his clothes. But is it all true? Is the composer's lot one of endless misery? Vivaldi ended up destitute but allegedly earned and squandered around £1.6 million. True or false?

So who were the cash kings? And which composers were fiscal failures? Based on Classic FM's highly successful Composers' Notes radio series, this book gives you the ins and outs of composers' cashflow. And then puts them head-to-head in a "rich list" of history's greatest composers.

John Cage

Thoughts on music –

Shortly, I'll be writing again (This time for orchestra). What will it be? ... I don't know. As usual I want to keep from interrupting the silence that's already here. "Bubbles on the surface of Silence." That's how Thoreau described sounds, that way or nearly that way.

When people know only one name in contemporary music, the name is usually John Cage. Born September 5, 1912, in Los Angeles, he died in New York in 1992. His composition teachers included Henry Cowell and Arnold Schoenberg. In a career that began in the 1930s, shortly after he left Pomona College, Cage composed hundreds of works, ranging from early pieces that were organized according to the conventional rules of harmony and thematic development, to late pieces that defied those rules.

One of the most controversial artistic thinkers of this century, he started a shift in the way artists view the creation of music by utilizing a method of chance operations to create his music, thereby removing his own artistic taste from the creation of the composition. His invention of the prepared piano and his work with percussion instruments led him to imagine and explore many unique and fascinating ways of structuring the temporal dimension of music. In the music world John Cage started a revolution by proposing that composers could jettison the musical language that had evolved over the last seven centuries, and in doing so, he opened the door to minimalism, performance art, and virtually every other branch of the musical avant-garde.

Cage's influence spread far beyond the musical world. He was a central influence on the work of choreographer Merce Cunningham, as well as painters Jasper Johns and Robert Rauschenberg, and several generations of performance artists. Perhaps his work is best summed up by Arnold Schoenberg, who described him as "an inventor of genius."

GCSE Composition

• The GCSE Composition Course

By Barry Russell and Tony Harris

This new series of books for teachers and students of GCSE Music across the examination boards comprises a Teachers Book and four themed Project Books, providing everything needed to manage a successful GCSE Composition programme

The Teachers Book contains:

- an outline of the content in each Project Book
- introductions and checklist reminders for each project
- back-up guides to supervising and completing the projects
- a selection of 'kick-start' ideas: short, quick exercises to initiate composing activities or to investigate certain technical aspects of music
- integrated listening, performing and improvising activities
- notes on ancillary activities: evaluation, working to a brief and keeping a log
- teaching-point guidance and suggestions for classroom and project management

The Project Books contain everything a student needs to embark on the work – five projects designed to be completed within a half-term period. Each is set out like a recipe book with descriptions of how to complete the process, and carefully limited choices within which to exercise creativity
